

Match the terms with their correct definitions

1.	Deep learning
2.	Malware
3.	Bug
4.	Lag
5.	Hallucination
6.	Moravec's Paradox
7.	Software developer
8.	Streaming services
9.	Midjourney
10.	Tokenization
11.	Spyware
12.	Data Scientist
13.	Bias
14.	Claude
15.	Adaptive learning
16.	Extended reality
17.	Deepfakes
18.	Buzzwords
19.	Trojan horses
20.	Phishing

- A- Trendy words or phrases used frequently, often without deep understanding
- B- Platforms that deliver digital content in real-time without downloading, like Netflix or Spotify
- C- A coding error that causes a program to function incorrectly
- D- Blending of the real and digital worlds
- E- A conversational AI assistant developed by Anthropic, similar to ChatGPT
- F- A cyberattack that uses fake messages to steal personal or financial information
- G- An AI tool that generates images based on text prompts
- H- A type of machine learning that uses neural networks to analyze complex patterns in data
- I- A professional who extracts insights from large datasets using statistics and machine learning
- J- Software that secretly collects information about you without your permission
- K- A delay between a user's action and a system's response, often due to slow performance
- L- Malicious software disguised as legitimate to trick users into installing it
- M- Someone who creates and maintains applications or systems software
- N- Realistic but fake videos or images created using AI
- O- The idea that tasks that are easy for humans are hard for AI, while hard tasks are easier for AI
- P- Software designed to harm or gain unauthorized access to a computer system
- Q- An educational system that customizes content based on the learner's needs and progress
- R- When an AI system generates information that is not based on real data or facts
- S- The process of splitting text into smaller units for language processing
- T- A distortion in AI results caused by prejudiced or unbalanced training data